

Five Counties Families Share your story with us!

Building Abilities for Life

Dear Five Counties Family,

Thank you for taking the time to complete this questionnaire. Every family's story is unique and inspirational, and we appreciate you sharing yours with us. These kinds of stories help raise awareness of what Five Counties does to support kids and families in building abilities for life.

Feel free to skip any questions if you do not want to answer. You will receive a copy of the story for approval before it is released for communication purposes. We do not use last names in our publications (unless requested or required and that would require approval).

Once approved, the information will be used by Five Counties across various channels, including newsletters, presentations, brochures, website, mailings, social media sites and news stories (print, radio, TV).
